Attention: Ms. Diane Clark

Dear Ms. Clark:

    In accordance with your request of 5 August 1977, the Central Intelligence Agency (CIA) has reviewed S. 1264, The Federal Acquisition Act of 1977, specifically Title VIII, to make sure that the amendment or repeal of any particular provision of current law will not adversely affect CIA procurement activities. It has been found that the proposed amending or repeal of existing provisions of current law does not adversely affect CIA procurement activity.

    We also wish to report that no major legislation has been passed since 1972 which affects CIA procurement procedures. In addition, there has been no provision of law affecting this Agency's procurement procedures passed before or after 1972 which has not been included in the United States Code.

                                        Yours truly,
